YOUTHTOPIA YOUNITE
TO DO LIST SDG 4

This to-do list for SDG 4: Quality Education was created by youth from around the world in consultation with YOUTHTOPIA's Circle of Youth members throughout multiple meetings, research sessions and debates. This is a call to action from young people on the frontlines to government, corporates and individuals like you!

Government:
1) Implement efficient literacy programmes in schools.
2) Update educational curriculums according to the students' needs.
3) Ensure education is inclusive and equitable.
4) Build and upgrade education facilities that are child, disability and gender sensitive.
5) Make teachers' salaries more competitive.

Corporations:
1) Offer apprenticeship opportunities for youth to have early access to the corporate environment.
Example: Gores Denai, an organisation founded by Circle of Youth member Ayesha Felice to educate and offer opportunities to youth interested in international affairs.
Example: Danone x Youthtopia partnership, which provides Indonesian youth the opportunity to develop their own sustainable product into the market.
2) Provide employees with continuous capacity-building opportunities to improve their skills for their current and future employment.
3) Allow flexible schedules for employees who are enrolled in higher education.
4) Keep research publications accessible to the general public.
5) Invest in scholarship funds to provide opportunities to disadvantaged young people

Individuals:
1) Engage in your children's education by observing their progress and supporting education at home.
2) Validate information you perceive through credible sources either online or in a public library.
3) Support and volunteer for organisations that provide education to underprivileged children.
Example: Gharsah Sweden, an organisation founded by Circle of Youth member Mohamad Al Jounde to provide education to refugees living in camps.
4) Spark conversations that provide opportunities to learn
Example: Arise Arose, a information platform developed by Circle of Youth Member Olivina "Peachy Liv" Maskan.
